Principal's Pulse

The first couple of weeks went great at QHS. As we progress through the early months of school, I challenge the students to be as involved as they can in extra-curricular activities. The more you are engaged, the more likely you will be successful at everything you do during your journey at the Q. If you are not actively involved, show up to support your fellow classmates! Go Quincy!

Important Details

- NWEA: 9th and 10th grades will be NWEA testing starting September 10th (ELA) and September 12th (Math). Make ups will take place September 11th, 13th, and 15th.
- Quincy Drama Society: The Quincy Drama Society will hold auditions for its fall play, "A Family Reunion To Die For" on September 11th and September 12th. Production dates for the show are November 15th-18th. Audition materials and a sign up sheet are available in room 131. Contact adviser Sharon Powell (powells@quincyschools.org) with any questions.
- Performance Training: Performance Training will resume September 4th with its new school hours. Training will take place before school from 6:30 am to 7:30 am and after school from 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm. All high school students can still sign up in the athletic office to participate. For cost and more information, please see the athletic office.

- Kellogg Community College dual-enrolled students: Please be sure to turn your KCC book receipts into the Guidance Office by September 21, 2018 if you would like to be reimbursed.
- * Speak to College and Career Representatives: There will be various recruiters and representatives from colleges and career fields. Keep an eye out for who will be visiting Quincy and for sign-ups outside of the Guidance Office! Our upcoming visits are as follows: Monday September 10th-Jackson College and Tuesday September 11th-Saginaw Valley State University. See Miss Deneau in the Guidance Office with any questions and look for the sign up on the board outside of the office.
